Sights of a Life-time.

Cincinnati seems to get hold of all the great modern stage attractions of late, and the manager of Heuck's Opera House has secured for two weeks, commencing Sunday, May 3, 1885, the marvelous "Naïad Queen" spectacle which has created such a furore in the large cities by its magnitude and splendor. $40,000 were expended by its owner for its three car loads of grand scenery, wonderful mechanical appliances and gorgeous costumes, and the erection entire is said to be the grandest pageant ever seen on the American stage. Six hundred and fifty performers will enact its wondrous scenes, which display flying objects, carrying living children on their backs, living figures rising from stormy ocean depths and living fairs descending from heaven to rescue lost children in the woods. On a mighty eagle, liberty descends from realms of air and living Goddesses sing and morning float before your very eyes on gossamer clouds. Hundreds of fairies are seen sporting in sylvan dells and glittering grottoes, and showers of silver and gold, moving waters, sailing boats, sinking rocks and tempestuous storms are portrayed natural almost as life and the grandest tableaux and most enchanting scenes ever looked upon by human eyes, greet the enraptured gaze. Excusion rates will be made by all rail-ways running into Cincinnati. Don't miss seeing it for it will indeed be a "sight of a life-time."

A LETTER received by Rev. G. S. Easton from Rev. George C. Needham, the evangelist, states that he will be in Mayville on the 13th instant. From the interest manifested in this gentleman's coming it is safe to assume the meetings will be largely attended and it is confidently expected they will result in great good to Mayville. He will be accompanied by the distinguished musician, Professor Avis, who will organize a chorus of Mayville singers to assist in the meetings. Every Christian man and woman in Mayville is invited to attend these meetings.

"The World is all a Fleeting Show." And a very poor show it is to the man whose head swims with vertigo, and whose stomach is powerless to digest a square meal. It is a show of misery, distillation and despair—enough to make the man wish it was a great deal more fleeting than it is. But there are brighter days ahead, if you folks will be wise. Mr.
Oley Grob, Shoberyan, Wis., says:
"Brown's Iron Bitters cured me of disease and debility." Follow his example.

The New Jersey State Board of Health recommends the use of the following specimens in cholera seasons:

As a preventive of cholera, to be used in infected towns, a pint of exposure of saline of quinine, 2 drops; aromatic sulphuric acid, 2 drops; tincture of iron; to be taken before each meal, a half tablespoonful of water that has been boiled.
For diarrhoea, a mixture of laudanum and spirits of camphor, one part each, and tincture of opium, one part; to be taken two parts. A dose one teaspoonful in a wine glass of water.
In diarrhoea, take a recumbent position; use ice in the abdomen, and if there is a recurrence of discharge, use the above prescription. Send for a skilled physician. Drink water only that has been boiled.

SCHOOL NOTES.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NO. 2.—MAYVILLE.

of pupils on roll in the month of January, principal's room, 60; first assistant's, enrollment of 31 per cent. of the pupil body, and average attendance of 77 per cent.

The principal's room is 38x18 feet with 11 feet ceiling. There is almost 10 feet of blackboard and that is not good, in fact, nearly all the boards are in need of repairing. Grades E, F, and G are taught by the principal. Willie Carnahan and Harry Ott had lost no time when we took our notes. Joseph Wilson, the principal, is teaching his twenty-first year in the public schools of Mayville.
As an educator Professor Wilson takes great interest in the subject of teaching and is always ready to lend a helping hand to any movement for the benefit of the city or county schools.
The work of his room is orderly and systematic and the discipline good. To avoid repetition and we will here say that the order and discipline of every room of this school is good and reflects credit alike upon the assistants and the principal.

The First Assistants room is 26x18 and ceiling 10 feet. Two blackboards on each of which are found a handsome outline map, a recitation in geography, which is in progress. Grades C and D are taught in this room. Ella Gunn and Willie Gunn have been perfect in their attendance. Mrs. Fannie Key, the teacher, has been engaged in the Mayville Public Schools for fifteen years. She is a very diligent and painstaking teacher, and has not only the respect but the love and confidence of her pupils. So that we see the greatest care on their part in writing and preparing their work. In their studies, that they may merit her ap-

A TERRIBLE TRAGEDY.

MOST DARING EXPRESS ROBBERY A DOUBLE MURDER.

The Finnish Follower of Jesse James Makes Good His Escape—Gen. Alsup Will Make an Unconditional Surrender—in the Northwest.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., May 1.—A ghastly sight met the gaze of the station men when the Chicago express on the Louisville, New Albany and Chicago road, arrived here a little after midnight. Neither express messenger nor baggage master appearing at the door of the cars, the doors were forced in. On the floor lay George Davis, the express messenger, in a pool of blood, with a bullet hole in his head. The express safe was open and empty. Kneeling over it, with blood and brains oozing from two bullet holes in his head, was Peter Weber, the baggage master. His head rested partly on the safe.

The last station at which the men were seen was Smithville, about fifteen miles south of here. The train climbs a heavy grade from the east fork of the Waite up to Smithville, which is on the divide between the east and west forks of the Waite. It is supposed that it was while coming slowly up this heavy grade the robbers boarded the car and did his bloody work. The men were gently removed to the waiting room of the station and surgeons summoned. Weber regained consciousness long enough to describe the murder and robbery.

"While coming up Smithville grade," said Weber "as we were sitting in our chairs, the door of the baggage car opened, and a man stepped quickly and quietly in. He first knocked Davis down, with a club and then came at me. I raised my arm, but he hit me over the head and knocked me off my chair onto the floor. For Davis went to raise up on his elbow in a dazed way, and the man fired a bullet into his head, when Davis fell back with a groan, as I thought dead. The man then covered me with his revolver, and ordered me to get up and get the key out of Davis' pocket, unlock the safe, and hand him out the packages. All the while he was swearing at me, and telling me to hurry up. I begged him not to shoot, but as I handed him the last package from the safe, he fired and I don't know anything more."

Weber has since relapsed into unconsciousness. It is thought that both men will die. A large amount of money was in the safe. It is, taking it all in all, the most daring robbery ever committed in Southern Indiana. There is no clue to the thief. Railroad and express company detectives have been summoned from Louisville, Chicago and Cincinnati to work up the case. Some railroad men think he boarded the train at Louisville, and did the work on the Smithville grade, because it was easy there to jump out.

The greatest indignation exists here and at Smithville, and, in anticipation of the large rewards which will undoubtedly be offered the country is being secured by volunteer bands in search of the villain.

LATELY—Weber is dead. The amount of booty stolen is $12,000.

PANAMA'S PLIGHT.

Alsup Must Make an Unconditional Surrender at Once.

PANAMA, May 1.—Messrs. Correa and Clement, peace commissioners to Buenavista, are detained at Call. The expedition of national troops which has arrived in Panama bay consists of 850 men, under Col. Montoya as civil, and Col. Reyes as military chief. The expedition has been sent to restore order in the state of Panama. It will then go on to the relief of Gen. Santo Domingo Vilá at Cartagena. A note signed by Col. Montoya and Col. Reyes, the chiefs of the expedition, was sent to the dean of the consular corps, in which it was set forth that the object of the expedition was to maintain order and give guarantee for the safety of life and property and free transit on the isthmus.

At a meeting of the consuls with General Alsup, the latter said that while he did not entirely accept the titles conferred upon Col. Montoya and Col. Reyes he was willing to distance his forces, deliver up their arms and retire to private life upon certain conditions.

First—He would resign to any one who could constitutionally claim power.
Second—Pardon for political offenses a man, but prosecution and punishment of all offenders against the common law.
Panama, Colon and elsewhere on the isthmus.
These briefly constitute the terms upon which Gen. Alsup desires to surrender. The commissions have carried these terms to the national commander, who refuses to listen to any terms.

PARIS, May 1.—Ezard Pashá, the Turkish ambassador here stated to a central news representative when asked as to what he thought would be Turkey's attitude in the event of war between England and Russia, that it was his firm belief that his government would take sides with neither power. "It is vital," said he, "to Turkey's interests that she remain neutral throughout, and to carefully avoid any complications that may arise."

BOUND TO GET THEIR MONEY.

Armed Laborers Hold Two Men as Hostages to Insure Payment of Wages.

BALTIMORE, May 1.—For some time there has been trouble on the line of the extension of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad between this city and Philadelphia. Several contractors have swindled the operatives. There is dissatisfaction near Chase's station and a riot is imminent.

This results from a change of contractors and an effort to proceed with the work before the men who have already been at work are paid. The work is held by 300 armed men, who declare they will kill the first man who goes to work. They are holding Col. Bradley, the superintendent, and a Mr. McMillan as hostages until they are paid. The prisoners are surrounded by armed guards, who furnish them with all necessities. Unless the money is paid very soon serious trouble is apprehended.

John Childers, a farmer living near Point Pleasant, W. Va., and en route for home from Cincinnati, attempted in a temporary fit of insanity, to shoot himself in the Ohio. He jumped from the steamer St. Lawrence, lying at Cincinnati about to sail.
